NATIONAL REFORM TICKET.

We have shown what the Radical party has done for North Carolina and the country.

We have shown how it has plundered and trampled down our Mother State. We have shown its extravagance, its misrule, its swindlings, its usurpations, its violence, its wickedness, and its unparalleled atrocities.

We have told, day after day and week after week, how its reign in this State has been signaled by a series of unblushing frauds and thefts, of wanton and reckless usurpations of power, of violations of every principle of Constitutional government and civil liberty, of profligacy, crime and ruin.

We have proved, by facts and figures compiled from the records, how the people of North Carolina have been deceived, imposed upon, fleeced, swindled and outraged by Radical officials.

Never in the history of political parties in any country, has there ever been seen a more disgraceful and infamous record than that presented by the Radical party in North Carolina, from 1868 to the present time.

If the people have not been awakened to a sense of their wrongs; if they do not see any danger in the continued ascendancy of the Radical party; if they do not determine to put a stop to the outrages which have been inflicted upon them; if they are willing that their State shall be four years longer in the hands of a party which has proved false to every obligation and recant to every trust, then it will be useless to reason with them longer. But unless they are prepared to surrender their property, their interests, their liberty, their lives into the hands of unprincipled, corrupt and heartless politicians, we would appeal to them, in the strongest terms to repudiate the authors of the wrongs which have been inflicted upon North Carolina.

The argument is about exhausted. The time for action is close at hand. People of North Carolina, will you not rise up in your might, and drive the scoundrels from power?

Who introduced into our judicial system the miserable Code of Civil Procedure—so full of contradictions and absurdities—being, in the language of an eminent lawyer in the State "a bundle of absurdities"? The Radicals.

Who made appropriations of State bonds at one session of the Legislature to the amount of twenty four millions of dollars for Rail Roads which were never built and never intended to be? The Radical Legislature of 1868-9.

Who tortured Murray and Patton—hung them up by their necks until life was nearly extinguished, in order to extort confessions of occurrences of which they knew nothing? Kirk and his brigands.

Who have information from a source of the highest reliability, that the Radicals propose to import negro voters from South Carolina and Tennessee to carry the State election for the Radical party in August.

Our State Executive Committee have received this information from parties entitled to the highest credit, and we have every reason to believe the report to be true.

The laws of North Carolina require that every voter shall have resided in the State twelve months preceding the election.

We call upon our friends, especially in the border counties, to be on the alert for this new game of the Radicals, and to detect and thwart it!

See that no imported negro be allowed to vote in August.

The Radicals are unscrupulous. They have an immense amount of money to spend in this election.

They are using every trick and device to defeat our party.

They will stoop to any means to compass their ends.

Forewarned, fore-armed, Democrats and Conservatives, be vigilant and active on election day.

Challenge every voter you have reason to believe is not entitled to vote.

Watch the polls diligently till the sun goes down.

Let no fraudulent votes be cast.

Look out for South Carolina and Tennessee negroes in the border counties!

See that they do not vote!

Challenge them on election day!

WATCH THE POLLS.

IF EVERY VOTER IN NORTH CAROLINA WHO IS OPPOSED TO RADICALISM, WILL COME OUT TO THE ELECTION ON THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST, WE WILL ELECT MERRIMON BY TWENTY THOUSAND MAJORITY.

If your name is not on the Registration books, see that it is before the day of election.

How much did Littlefield, Swepson & Co., pay in cash for the Radical Legislature of 1868-9? According to Swepson's sworn testimony, the sum of two hundred and forty-one thousand dollars.

THE ARGUMENT HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

The Democratic press, candidates and speakers have held up Radicalism in all its hideousness and loathsomeness to the indignant gaze of the people of the State.

We have shown what the Radical party has done for North Carolina and the country.

How much did Littlefield, Swepson & Co., pay in cash for the Radical Legislature of 1868-9? According to Swepson's sworn testimony, the sum of two hundred and forty-one thousand dollars.

Who brought into this State a mob of Tennessee ruffians, who inaugurated a reign of terror in 1870, and arrested peaceable citizens without any warrant of law? The Radical Government of North Carolina.

TO OUR CANDIDATES.

In their speeches, our candidates should inform their friends about the registration laws.

No man can vote unless his name is on the registration books before election day.

EVERY VOTER SHOULD SEE FOR HIMSELF THAT HIS NAME IS ON THE BOOKS.

It is too late to attend to this on election day.

Every man is compelled to vote in the township in which he resides.

No certificates of registration are allowed.

Every voter must be a resident of the township thirty days before the election.

There are four boxes, one for the State ticket, one for members of Congress, one for members of the Legislature and one for county officers.

Let our candidates impress upon voters the duty of seeing that their names are put on the registration books before the 1st of August.

Who announces in his public speeches that he is in favor of giving Grant power to suspend habeas corpus in North Carolina at his pleasure?

Tod R. Caldwell.

The expenses of administering the State government, except for Public Charities, under Conservative rule, was less than one-half what it was under Radical rule.

REMEMBER that our beautiful capitol was converted into a den of iniquity during the reign of Littlefield, when Holden was Governor, Caldwell President of the Senate and Brogden a Senator.

LET EVERY MAN ENTITLED TO VOTE, DO SO.

See that the name of every Democrat is on the registration books before the first day of August.

See that every Democrat in your township is brought to the polls.

Have conveyances for the old and infirm, for the crippled and maimed.

Talk to your neighbors; tell them of the importance of this election; arouse the lukewarm and apathetic.

Work, work, WORK, unceasingly, from now until the day of election.

Give nine days to your country.

WORK ON THE DAY OF ELECTION.

Be at the polls early.

Allow no man to vote without challenge, unless he is twenty-one years old, has been a bona fide resident of his township thirty days and resident in the State twelve months.

Let every Democratic vote be polled.

The next Legislature will have to vote on the proposed constitutional amendments as a whole. Let the people vote only for those candidates who are pledged to support all the amendments.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS OF THE STATE TO THE NOTICE IN OUR PAPER OVER THE STATE TICKET, AT THE HEAD OF OUR EDITORIAL COLUMNS.

IN FAVOR OF A CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT.

Maj. R. C. Badger, one of the Republican nominees for the House of Representatives from this county, said on oath that Senator Pool recommended to Gov. Holden to employ McLindsay to arrest certain distinguished Democrats in the State, and in case they should give him any trouble, Pool said that McLindsay would "lose" them in the Albemarle Sound.

In the course of Maj. Badger's examination, he was asked: "What are your present party affiliations?" Badger answered:

"Republican of the strictest sect. My theory is a Government of the strongest kind—a centralized Government."

Maj. Badger is now a Radical candidate and an advocate of Grant's re-election.

Who plunged the State, already impoverished by the effects of the war, into a new debt of fifteen millions of dollars—thus ruining her credit, and bringing greater poverty and bankruptcy upon her people? The Radical party.

The Radical Legislature cost the people over $435,000.

The Conservative Legislature cost only $160,000. A saving to the people every year of about $275,000.

In the single matter of pay of officers at the Capitol, the Conservative Legislature has saved the people over $13,500 every year.

ONLY NINE DAYS!

Only nine days more to work in! North Carolinians, are you doing your duty?

Is every man at work?

If not, why not?

Only nine days more for the redemption of your State!

Wheel into line!

March together in solid phalanx!

Be firm—be courageous—be energetic—be vigilant!

Only nine days more! North Carolinians, are you ready? The contest is close at hand.

WATCH THE POLLS ON ELECTION DAY!

Every voter must be an actual, bona fide resident of the township in which he offers to vote for thirty days before the day of election. See that the law is complied with.

Challenge suspicious characters! Challenge all persons under 21.

WATCH THE POLLS.

REMEMBER that Caldwell attended the Morganton Convention and permitted a fraudulent issue of stock to allow the Company to organize against the strenuous efforts of Vance and Merrimon.

This bogus stock was issued in the interest of Swepson!

Whose acts of usurpation and lawlessness, in regard to the penal and charitable institutions of the State caused a riot in the Penitentiary—in which the convict Hartsfield was killed? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who has shown himself the enemy of civil law—of Constitutional liberty—and of the personal rights of the citizen? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who was President of the Senate when all the swindling by Littlefield & Co., was done in this State? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who threatened with starvation the poor unfortunate inmates in the charitable State institutions? Tod R. Caldwell.

WHERE is the Agricultural College for which Congress gave us land scrip, that was sold for $125,000? It went into Radical hands. They invested it in special Tax Bonds, for the benefit of the swindlers.

ACROSS THE CLASP HANDS! ACROSS THE BLOODY CHAINS!

Mr. Boutwell in his speech at Greensboro, as the spokesman of Grant, protested against the language of Horace Greeley's letter, in regard to the North and South clasping hands across the bloody chasm that has so long divided them.

In other words, Grant's Administration, speaking through a member of his Cabinet, tells the people of North Carolina that there must be no reconciliation between the lately divided sections!

This is monstrous!

The people of the North are anxious that relations of fraternity and good feeling be restored between the States of the Union. Mr. Boutwell does not express the sentiments of the North.

His effort at Greensboro has seriously damaged the cause he was sent to this State to bolster up.

Our people are tired of strife and dissensions. They long for peace, for quietude, for reconciliation!

Mr. Boutwell declines the offer of the South to shake hands. He protests against it!

Well, we will see how his speech is received at the North.

We have reason to believe that it will not benefit the Administration.

SENATOR WILSON.

It will be seen from our special telegram that Senator Wilson, candidate for Vice-President on the Grant ticket, refused to allow Judge Fowle to answer him at Goldsboro.

We ask him if he will not allow our party to answer him when he speaks in Raleigh?

AN ALARMING SUGGESTION TO NERVOUS PEOPLE.—During a severe thunder shower in Hampton, N. H., on Friday afternoon, twelve posts on which telegraph wires were supported, were shattered by the electricity, and during a shower a short time previous, eight posts in Venham were destroyed in a similar manner, owing probably to the wires being over charged. These facts should caution parties who have telegraph wires attached to their chimneys or the roofs of their houses, as the same force which would destroy a post might seriously damage a house. The conclusion is certain, that telegraph wires passing through towns should not be attached to the roofs of houses, as is frequently the case.—Boston Traveller, June 14th.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the heavy storm of Thursday night the Washington monument was struck by lightning, chipping several scales of marble from the left shoulder of the statue of General Washington. The accident, however, has not disfigured the statue to any great extent, but at the same time has made an ugly gouge in the shoulder, but not sufficiently large to be noticed from the side-walk below. The monument is furnished with a lightning-rod, but it does not seem to have been a sufficient protection in this case.—Baltimore Sun.

PREPOSTEROUS.—We are authorized to state that the report circulated by a morning contemporary the Hon. Charles A. Eldridge, the Democratic representative in Congress for the Fourth district of Wisconsin, will support Grant is without the least foundation. Mr. Eldridge is on the Democratic Congressional Committee, and may be found any day at their rooms in the Capitol attending to the business of the committee in aiding the election of Greeley and Brown.—Washington Patriot.

MR. JAS. PIRSSON:

SIR:—The Piano which I purchased from you in September, 1870, is a very superior one. It has been frequently tested by competent judges, all of whom give unequivocal testimony to its excellence. I could not ask for a better instrument.

Very Respectfully,
W. G. SIMMONS.

RALEIGH, March 17, 1871.

MR. JAMES PIRSSON:—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the merits and excellence of your Pianos—Great Union Piano Co. I have used one of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1870, and cannot help me to say that I do not know of another instrument that keeps so remarkably well in tune, and not a string has been broken. Hoping that the demand for your Pianos will never cease,

I am yours most respectfully,

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

The young men of Fayetteville have a debating club.

Hon. J. R. DOOLITTLE addressed a large crowd at Fayetteville, on Saturday.

The Charlotte Observer says: "Brotherhood" one of the lights of the Radical party and a so-called minister of the gospel enlightened the "colored brethren" on the manner in which they had to act and vote in the coming election. He harangued for about three hours and the boisterous cheering of a large crowd of "dark faced" brethren.

Execution of Two Murderers at Hendersonville, N. C.—The Scenes at the Gallows—A Confession.

We have before informed our readers of the execution at Hendersonville, Henderson county, N. C., of two brothers, Columbus and Gowan Adair, for the murder of the Weston family.

A letter to the New York Herald, dated Hendersonville, N. C., July 13th, says:

The brothers, Columbus Adair and Gowan Adair, expiated the crime of murder by suffering the extreme penalty of the law on the gallows, in the town of Hendersonville, Henderson county, N. C., on Friday, the 12 day of July, 1872. This town is situated in the Western part of the State, about two hundred and forty miles from Raleigh, in the midst of a thrifty and intelligent population. The murder of the Weston family, for which the Adairs were executed, did not, however, take place in Hendersonville or in Henderson county, but in the adjoining county of Rutherford. It was committed on the night of April, 26th, 1871.

The Weston family consisted of Silas Weston, his wife Polly, their three children—David, Theodosia, and an infant—and William Herbert Steadman, alias Lee, son of Polly Weston by another man. These were all killed except Polly Weston and her infant. Silas Weston was a mulatto, but an honest and industrious man. He was about forty years of age. His two children, David and Theodosia, were respectively about eight and six years of age, and the boy William was some ten or twelve years old. Silas and his family were comparatively poor but they were at peace with all the world and lived happily together till the terrible night that brought such overwhelming ruin upon them. The arrest of Martin Bayard and the two Adairs—Columbus and Gowan—was made by Officer Hanes and his posse at the house of Henderson Adair, father of Columbus and Gowan, on the morning after the murder, the 27th of April, 1871. They were tried and convicted on the evidence of Polly Weston, the survivor of the family. Bayard, while under sentence of death, made confession of his connection with the murders, and has been respite until the 15th of October next.

Fifteen minutes before 12 o'clock the prisoners Gowan and Columbus appeared with the sheriff and his deputy on the scaffold. They ascended the stand with a firm step. Gowan's eyes were fixed on the ground; Columbus looked anxiously over the immense crowd present. On reaching the platform they sat upon chairs between the sheriff and his deputy. They were both dressed in black suits, and wore white shirts with cravats. Columbus had a red ribbon fastened to his coat; Gowan a black one. Soon the minister came, and standing on his feet, prayed fervently for the prisoners. They seemed unmoved by it. Columbus called for water, and, having drunk, addressed the crowd. He denied having committed the murders; denounced the confession of Bayard as false, and said that it was unjust that he should be hanged and Bayard respited.

Having concluded his speech, Columbus requested the sheriff to show him his coffin. The lid being removed, he gazed a moment without the slightest apparent feeling, and then took his seat.

GOVAN'S ADDRESS.

Gowan immediately stood upon his feet and addressed the crowd. He said he had fallen to his lot to die on the gallows; that he would not say much, as he had made a statement to the newspaper reporters that would be published, and also an affidavit. But I am not guilty of murder. The slain is not on my hands, though I have been tried and convicted; but that does not make me guilty. The murder of Silas Weston and children was a most atrocious crime, but I did not commit it. Bayard has made a confession, and charged the crime on my father and brothers. He is a coward, and confessed to save his life. But I will never confess, not to save my own life. When I say a thing, I mean it. What my brother has said about the Governor I endorse. He would pardon a coward, but he could not show clemency to a brave man—some people don't like the looks of a brave man, but would run over him. Well, I will show you there is one man in Western North Carolina who is not afraid to die. I am glad that so many of you have come out to see me die. I must have some friends, as it is not usual for so many people to go to see a man die. I have no more to say.

These speeches having been concluded, the minister again appeared on the scaffold and addressed the crowd in a most eloquent and impressive manner. The minister then offered a last prayer for the condemned, humbly kneeling on the platform. Columbus also knelt, but Gowan sat erect in his chair, notwithstanding Columbus asked him to get on his knees. The prayer having been said, the minister bade them farewell. The Sheriff and his deputy also took their good bye.

PLACING THE NOOSE.

The Sheriff told them to stand up. They arose with alacrity and stood erect while the nooses were being placed on their necks. No change of expression could be seen on their faces—not a nerve quivered. The Sheriff bowled their arms behind their bodies, and then tied their feet together just above their ankles. The knots of the ropes were placed under and a little behind the left ears, and the Sheriff and the Deputy descended from the scaffold, having first put on the white caps.

THE TRAP FALLS.

The process of the drop was hidden beneath and behind the scaffold; but it was a simple lever, so connected with the main support of the platform that it could be easily worked. The sheriff placed himself at the end of the lever, and Columbus being asked, "Are you ready?" said "Yes," when the sheriff touched the lever with his foot. A dull clap was heard, and the bodies of Columbus and Gowan Adair were seen dangling in the air. In a few seconds slight convulsive shudders passed through their frames and they were motionless.

DEATH.

In ten minutes the pulse ceased to beat, and in another minute or two their hearts throbbed no more, and their souls took their everlasting flight. In fifteen minutes they were cut down and placed in their coffins. The people then—some three or four thousand of them—quietly dispersed.

GOVAN'S CONFESSION.

The Herald reporter visited the prisoners cell the day before the execution. He found Gowan Adair combing his hair and looking quite cheerful. Columbus Adair was sitting on the floor of the cell supporting his head between his hands, and evidently in a reflecting mood. Henderson Adair and his young sons, Crayton and Avery, were also in the same cell.

The condemned men at once began the conversation. They enquired of the reporter whether he thought the testimony of Bayard would convict their father and brothers; said their father and brothers were as innocent as the angels in heaven, &c., &c.

Reporter: But how do you know they are innocent?

Gowan Adair: Because I was one of the parties that did the killing, and they were not present and knew nothing about the matter.

Reporter: And you confess your guilt, do you?

Gowan (smiling): I helped to do it; I lied in the matter.

Reporter: Who all were with you?

Gowan: All about it was a Ku Klux, and led other Ku Klux to Weston's for the purpose of killing the family.

Reporter: How many of you went into the house?

Gowan: We all went in—seven or eight of us.

Reporter: Were your brothers and father, here along with you?

Gowan: They were not; I declare it before God. My brother Columbus here is an innocent man.

Reporter: Were you disguised?

Gowan: We were; all of us.

Reporter: Polly Weston saw but three persons, and they were not disguised. How could she have been mistaken?

Gowan: The Lord only knows.

Reporter: Can you give me the name of the kluks who were with you at Weston's?

Gowan: Certainly; they were (naming seven very respectable men, well known in the county of Rutherford).

Reporter: Are you not mistaken in the names you give?

(Henderson Adair to Gowan: You know they were disguised Gowan.)

Gowan: Their faces were covered, but they gave me the names I have given you.

Reporter: You say you are a kluks; are you not a Republican?

Gowan: I vote that ticket.

Both the culprits said: "We are as ready as we will ever be; we are not afraid of death."

In North Carolina the same scenes of misrule salute us as we cross her borders. Her debt in 1861, was $9,699,500. A debt now of $34,000,000, without the ability to pay the interest on it, $11,000,000 of her bonds besides declared to have been fraudulent and voider people groaning beneath unbearable taxation, and despair and gloom gathering over their future, are the chief consequences which have befallen North Carolina under the policy and ascendancy of the Republican party.—VOORHEES.

SENATOR SUMNER IS PREPARING AN ADDRESS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE WHICH, IT IS SAID, WILL ADVISE THEM VERY STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF GIVING THEIR SUPPORT TO MR. GREELY IN THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN.

In reviewing the situation Mr. Sumner concedes only four States to Grant—namely, Vermont, Massachusetts, Iowa, and South Carolina.

A Florida correspondent of the Savannah Republic says that the Indians in the Everglades refuse to free their slaves, and swear that Sheridan will have to "ride the tail off every horse in the army before they give up a single nigger."

GEN. CLINGMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. T. L. Clingman will address his fellow-citizens at the several points stated below. His brigade was largely made up from some of these counties—a brigade which, while under his command for nearly three years, was in many arduous engagements, never broke in battle, and never failed to do its full duty in the hour of trial.

The General hopes to meet as many of his old comrades as may find it convenient to come out to the appointments indicated.

A CARD.

To the people of North Carolina: In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Radical and Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of, or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it was a "rehash of newspaper articles." It is indeed a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and insinuation against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable partisan warfare that can not be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, fruitfully have been of misrepresentation and falsehood have not republished it.

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely false, scandalous, and libelous, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial tribunal for the better satisfaction of the public, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a savage way with impunity, I will give Mr. Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameless and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow men for high, respectable and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal proposition of the freedom of the press to accomplish the base purpose of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic man will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it.

FOR SALE. VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (522) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shooey Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the Fourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. The land is second growth, and about 30 acres of rich bottom land, and yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, &c., &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

De George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on Lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years.

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent North Carolina Citizens, who are known to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THE STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, if well managed, it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INDUSTRY.

The Raleigh Daily News.

TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1872.

The following breezy little idyl of summer life by the seashore—graceful, substantial, and half playful as a flirtation—is contributed to the Boston "Courier" by the author of many a dainty verse:

A WOMAN'S VEIL.
It was full many a season since,
When I was summing at Cape May,
They had a foolish fashion then—
Mayhap they have the same to-day—
That every lady in the dance,
If pleased with any, should not fail
To give her veil.

And there was one I found me of,
Whose name—well, never mind her name;
Helen or Alice, Blanche or Maud,
To you who read will be the same.
But that old fashion of the veil,
Happily recalls the past, and stirs
Memories that cluster round the night:
She gave me hers.

She flushed, poor child, in giving it,
And I, too, felt my brow grow warm.
As laughingly, with fingers deft,
She knotted it about my arm;
And though the color on her cheek
Was like the light in morning skies,
I thought I saw a holler dawn
Within her eyes.

The dance was over, and we strolled
Out from the ball-room's glittering press,
To meet the breeze that many a time
Clasped each one in its cool caress;
And sauntering on we reached the sea—
The far waltz music's cadence sweet
Mixed with the sound of waves that died
About our feet.

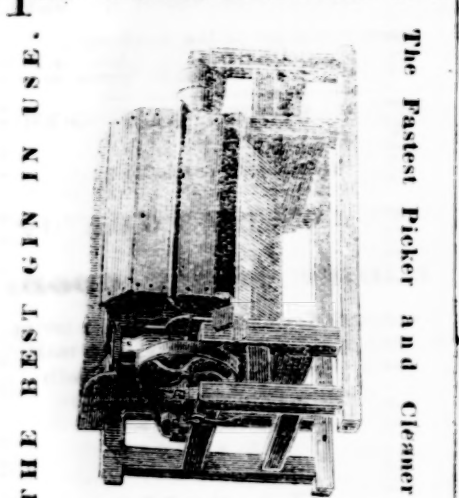

We talked of what I now forget,
But earnestly, or seeming so,
Next day I was to leave, but then
In town we'd meet again, you know,
Ah, well-a-day! the gods dispose,
And ruined hopes are worse than vain;
She laughed good-bye—I never saw
Her face again.

Time changes us not for the best,
Though grief sometimes defeats his art,
And keeps a little patch spring-green
In the white winter of the heart,
And mine, though colder grown with years,
Feels that it is not frozen quite,
As memory goes wandering back
To that June night.

And sometimes on the summer eve,
Within my chamber all alone,
I watch the moon rise over the roofs,
And think I hear the ocean zone;
And through the smoke of my cigar
See loves and joys that I have lost,
Just as they vanish in the haze,
Leave my cheeks wet.

Life's a sad puzzle, and our hearts
Grow faint in searching for the clue;
She went before at twenty-five,
And I live on at fifty-two—
And wait the end, for well I know
That I shall meet her without fail,
On some spring morning—and till then
I keep the veil.
